Bring Your Appetite! Fall Luncheon
by Jane Dugas, Luncheon Coordinator

Thursday, October 24, 12:00 p.m.–1:30 p.m.
We are pleased to announce that our fall luncheon will be at the beautiful Skyline Country Club. We hope you will plan to join us! Doors open at 11:30 a.m. and lunch will be served at noon in the Crown room. Great door prizes! The cost is $22.00 per person, inclusive. Ample parking is available for members and their guests, including free valet parking. A reservation form is on page 11, or you may download the form through our website.

Our featured guest speaker will be Dr. Andrew C. Comrie, Senior VP for Academic Affairs and Provost at the UA. The topic of his talk will be “The UA’s Strategic Plan and the Realities of the Higher Education World”. We will also have time for questions from the audience.

Dr. Comrie received his undergraduate education at the University of Cape Town in South Africa and his Ph.D. from the Pennsylvania State University. His research focuses on the connections between climate, disease vectors and pathogens. Dr. Comrie joined the UA in 1992 as a climatologist in the School of Geography and Development. He has several interdisciplinary appointments including Atmospheric Sciences and Public Health.

Spring Luncheon...Good Food, Great Company
by Jane Dugas and Trudy Jacobson

The Spring luncheon this past April was held at the DoubleTree Hotel at Reid Park. A tasty three-course meal was served by a very attentive staff. Ms. “Rocky” LaRose, UA Deputy Athletic Director, was our guest speaker who provided an interesting and informative power-point presentation about UA athletics past and present, (i.e. did you know that Ina Road is named after Ina Giddings, and is pronounced “ee-na”?) Rocky is looking forward to retiring in January, 2014, and like many UARA members, she will have been a UA student, employee and retiree.

Several door prizes were donated by Rocky and the Executive Committee. We were happy to hear that many guests commented that this event far exceeded their expectations.

Winter Luncheon, 2014
Our Winter luncheon buffet will be on Thursday, January 24th, at the Tanque Verde Ranch. The price remains the same, $20.00 per person.

Let’s Crank Out the Love
by Sheila McGinnis, Director of Outreach & Community Partnerships, Office of Community Relations

We are very excited to announce the official kick-off of the 2013 UA Cares Campaign on October 8th. The university’s Office of Community Relations is once again leading the collaborative effort along with United Way of Tucson & Southern Arizona and The University of Arizona Foundation.

With the help of our retirees, over $395,000 was raised during last year’s UA Cares campaign! Even in these stressful economic times, the Wildcat spirit lives on in the generosity shown to others.

The pledges were directed towards a wide variety of university programs and scholarship funds. Also, many community agencies who serve children, youth and older adults were supported by retirees. UA retirees were most interested in improving education, health and helping the working poor.

This year’s campaign poster created by UA visual arts student, Chelsea Chun, carries the theme of “Let’s Crank Out the Love.” It’s a call to action and we hope everyone will continue to show their support by donating to the 2013 UA Cares Campaign. All retirees received a UA Cares Letter and pledge forms, with a postage-paid envelope enclosed.

Again, thanks for your continued support of UA Cares – a campaign for community giving. If you have any questions, please call Sheila McGinnis 520-626-4671, or email smcginnis@email.arizona.edu

Celebrate UA Food Day! Wed, October 23, on the University of Arizona Mall, 10-2pm

Sponsored by the Well University Partnership (initiated in 2011 by the Center for Science in the Public Interest to promote healthy lifestyles for employees, students, alumni and retirees and their families).

Stop by and experience food in a whole new way: food demos, interactive exhibits, delicious food tastings and an Iron Chef Competition! Food Day is a nationwide celebration that recognizes the initiative of individuals and organizations that are working hard to improve sustainable, affordable and healthy food sources that protect the environment. Details and updates can be found at www.UAFoodDay.com

May 1979: UA softball player, Kathleen “Rocky” LaRose, hits the winning run against ASU to win the UA’s first ever softball conference title.

Did you know? Many local grocery stores offer a 10% discount to seniors on the first Wednesday of the month!
Welcome to the next installment of UARA! The years keep rolling along and our goal is to continue serving the association members in the best way possible. For continuity as well as fresh new ideas, we want to encourage past presidents to attend our monthly Advisory Council meetings. Your knowledge and input is valuable; and we would enjoy seeing you once again.

As you begin to schedule your calendar, please mark the second Tuesday morning of each month as UARA time! Our meetings are open and we encourage and want our members to attend. The committee chairs will present reports, and your comments, ideas, and concerns could stimulate discussions and suggestions for current and future solutions to various problems. This is a great time to come together to learn more about UARA. Please consider becoming more involved in your organization.

Educational Seminars:
Two educational seminars will be presented this year, one in the Fall and the second in Winter. They will be open to all interested retirees and guests. Visit our website for dates, times, and specific program information.

Monthly Advisory Meetings:
The Advisory Council meetings will continue to be held on the second Tuesday of each month from 9:00 -10:00 a.m. in Room 104 of the Vine Building, located at 1125 N. Vine Avenue (just west of the Poetry Center one block north of Speedway). Complimentary parking is available to the south of the building. The Advisory Council meetings will continue to focus on the Goals and Objectives set for 2013-2014.

Program Meeting Opportunities:
We have planned an interesting array of programs for our retirees! These monthly programs (following the Advisory meetings on the second Tuesday of each month*) begin with a brief social and refreshment time from 10:00-10:15 a.m., followed by the speaker forum at 10:15-11:00 a.m. in Room 102 of the Vine Building. Programs will be offered monthly during the academic year, *excluding September and December. Every member is encouraged and invited to attend. The more input we have the better we can serve you.

Speakers for this year are as follows:

Oct. 8 – Drs. Fran Harris and Nicole Marrone, James S. & Dyan Pignattelli/UA Chairs in Audiology Rehab for Adults, topic: “Living Well with Hearing Loss”

Nov. 12 – Mary E. Emich, Arizona Aerospace Foundation, Pima Air and Space Museum/Titan Missile Museum

Jan. 14 – Mark Candee, Manager of Mineral Collections and Assistant Curator at Arizona State Museum

Feb. 11 – speaker pending

Mar. 11 – A detective from the Pima County Sheriff’s Department, topic: “Current Senior Scams”

Apr. 8 – Bill Davidson, Manager, Public Information and Marketing, and David Heineking, Director of Parking and Transportation, Parking and Transportation Services, University of Arizona

May 13 – speaker pending

UARA Activities Committee
Members of the UARA Activities Committee cordially invite you to participate in any or all of several events we have planned for the 2013-14 year.

Committee members include Jim Barrett, Sharon Campbell, Trudy Jacobson, Heather Lukach, Nancy Shiley and Suzanne Van Ort, Chair.

Some of the exciting events in the coming year include a Mirror Lab Tour, a shuttle tour of the UA Campus, a proposed trip to the Biosphere, a 4-game Basketball package for the Holiday Games, and a night at a UA Baseball game at Hi Corbett Field.

If you have suggestions for the Committee, please contact the UARA office (see back page). Every suggestion received from a UARA member is considered in planning activities.

Mirror Lab Tour Please join us for a tour of the UA Steward Observatory Mirror Lab on Wednesday, October 30, 2013, 1:00-2:30 pm. The cost is $8.00 per person. Participants must be able to climb stairs and stand for up to 30 minutes. The tour is an hour with time for Questions and Answers. Please send checks no later than October 18 (payable to UARA, address on back page). The Mirror Lab is located on the east side of the UA Football Stadium (maps will be provided to participants). Park in the Cherry Ave. garage (not included in fee).
UARA Scholarship Recipients Announced by Betty Atwater, Chair, Scholarship Committee

As the newly-appointed Chair of the UARA Scholarship Committee, I am pleased to report the results of the committee’s deliberations in selecting the 2013-2014 recipients of the Irving Yall Undergraduate Book Scholarship and the T.R. Rehm Graduate Scholarship. Our Committee, composed of outgoing Chair, Stardust Johnson (who has provided excellent leadership of this committee for several years), Thomas Rehm and myself, will fortunately remain intact during the coming year and will keep UARA members apprised of the influence that UARA's scholarships have on the academic progress of the recipients. The following three UA students were chosen to receive UARA scholarships for the 2013-2014 academic year.

Nicholas Ramirez
T.R. Rehm Graduate Scholarship

This scholarship is awarded to a graduate student who will pursue studies related to aging issues. Nicholas Ramirez, a graduate student in Audiology, has quite a bit of experience in the field of audiology, having worked for UA, TMC Pediatrics and Sonoran Health Care, as well as serving as an Army subcontractor at Ft. Huachuca. “I realized that many soldiers were not protecting their hearing and were developing hearing loss and tinnitus. I became very interested with the mechanics of hearing, current technology and prevention,” he wrote. “Current hearing loss statistics indicate that one in five Americans have hearing loss in at least one ear,” he added. “The T.R. Rehm Graduate Scholarship is very important to me because of the opportunity to further my studies in hearing loss and aging.”

Carlyn Stewart
Irving Yall Book Scholarship

Carlyn, a junior majoring in Anthropology and Studio Art, works at two part-time jobs in Tucson to help pay for her college expenses. In one of these jobs that she has held since high school, she does the marketing and graphic design work for the company as well as writing blogs and whitepapers. In addition to being a full-time student, she also devotes time to the non-profit organization, Esperanza Dance Project. “We seek to educate high school students about child sexual abuse,” she wrote. The group performs choreographed dances at high schools, holds Q and A sessions, and provides learning and reference materials. “I am also a board member,” she said, “and attend monthly meetings and create marketing and merchandising materials for the program as an intern.” Carlyn states that the biggest obstacle she has had to overcome is money, and she has been working to pay for college by herself.

Angela Kaitschuck
Irving Yall Book Scholarship

Angela is a junior with majors in Pre-Pharmacy and Russian and a minor Spanish. She is from the Ukraine and moved to the U.S. in 2001 with her mother, a medical doctor. She credits much of her academic success to her mother’s “daring” decision to move to the U.S. “I cannot fully describe how thankful I am for my mother’s choice to move.

I know that was the hardest decision she ever had to make,” she wrote. Although Angela’s first few years here were a struggle, learning to speak English, she kept going. “Every time I feel like giving up, I constantly flashback to the moment my mother had that decision to make and I regain that will power to push myself through obstacles.” She is applying to Pharmacy School this fall, and is currently a certified pharmacy technician trainee team leader at Walgreens Pharmacy. In addition, Angela also is a volunteer investigator working with Dr. Lawrence Hurley in the BIO5 Institute Cancer Drug Discovery Lab, looking at the effects of drugs on cancerous cells.

“’It’s been a pleasure to have been involved with the establishment and awarding of the UARA scholarships for the past several years. Thanks to all those who have contributed their time and effort to supporting students in their studies, most especially to Corinne Wilson, for whom the scholarships were a personal mission, and to Tom Rehm for his generosity in establishing the graduate scholarship.’” – Stardust Johnson, UARA Scholarship Committee Chair 2008-2013

How To Donate

90-UP!
by Trudy Jacobson

If sixty is the new forty, what is 90? It’s pretty great, say some active UARA members who have reached that milestone. Here are some of those retirees who are 90+ years of age, or as they say at the Senior Olympics, 90 and ‘better.’ Read what they have to say about being 90-Up!

Evelyn Carswell-Bing, 94
Being over 90 is “another gateway to different patterns of living and the opportunities to follow what I most cherish,” says Evelyn. She spent 36 years in education, as a teacher, principal, associate professor, and has had 3 books published. She has always done things a little differently…outside the box,” she says. She is a founder of the Children’s Museum Tucson, and enjoys frequent visits there so she can “enjoy the children’s enjoyment.” She is currently on no medication and can still drive. One of the secrets to her longevity: “Continue positive thinking and behavior—Live!”

Jimmye Hillman, 90
Being 90 is “proving to be as exciting as the past nine decades, says Jimmye, who has been at the UA since Nov. 1, 1950. Still a published author, Jimmye was featured last year in “Authors Among Us” in this newsletter. He has some advice for longevity: “Have the right parents, marry the right spouse, and choose the right people to ‘hang out’ with.”

Gladys Sorensen, 91
Being 90 plus is “a time of life, for me, to be relaxed, more easygoing, less critical of others and more accepting of what goes on around me,” says Gladys. She adds, “It’s a time of life to look back on all that has occurred in the world in the last 90 years and be amazed at the accomplishments and progress in all fields of endeavor, and be happy to benefit from such achievements.” Gladys says her best advice is the usual: exercise, good diet, and socializing with friends and family. She enjoys many activities, including volunteering, reading, book clubs, playing pocket billiards and cards, going to exercise classes, church activities, and email.

Cornelius “Corny” Steelink, 91
Being 90 is “preparing me for old age,” says Corny. He loves to travel and walk and is still volunteering for many civic committees. His advice? “Stay away from medical doctors as long as possible.” (Editor’s note: disregard that advice!) Corny recently went to an organ concert in an outdoor café. What is that, you ask? A musical show at an open-air restaurant? “No” says Corny. “It’s when everyone goes around the table announcing what organs they had removed that year.”

David Windsor, 92
Being in his 90’s is “never uninteresting and frequently amusing!” says David. He enjoys travel and likes to visit with former UA associates. He says, “I honestly loved going to work at the University every day of my 38 years there. But I have thoroughly enjoyed my retirement.” David is a former UARA president. His best tip for achieving longevity: Keep a sense of humor!

Have you recently turned 90 or are you approaching that special birthday? Please contact us (see back page) if you would like to be included in a future column.

Arizona Public Media Needs You!
How would you like to become a special friend of Arizona Public Media? You can do that by joining a group of volunteer UARA members to answer phones during one of the upcoming TV pledge drives.

Members of the UARA Activities Committee are putting together a group to attend either or both of the next two AZPM pledge drives:

- Thanksgiving Weekend through Dec. 8, 2013
- March 1-16, 2014

Volunteer shifts are 3 or 4 hours long, and participants are asked to arrive one hour early to be trained on the “easy-to-use” phone system. If you would like to join us on one (or both) of those dates, please contact the UARA office (contact information on the back page) by October 31 with your name, contact information, and preference of date.

For people who prefer to be heard but not seen, there will be a Radio Pledge Drive, which raises funding for NPR 89.1 and Classical 90.5, from October 12-18, 2013. If you are interested in this venue, contact Mary Paul, Arizona Public Media Volunteer Coordinator, at mpaul@azpublicmedia.org, or 626-5824.

ARIZONA SONORA DESERT MUSEUM
Deepen Connections Through Volunteering
If you’re a fan of the Museum, you may be looking for ways to become more engaged. Or, you may be seeking insight into day-to-day operations while learning new skills. If so, consider joining the core of over 300 Museum volunteers. Volunteers play an essential role in the Museum’s operations and often work side by side with staff. A full list of positions, and application details, is available online.

Parking and Transportation Update by Marcela Taracena, PTS Intern

Staff members of the UA Parking and Transportation Services (PTS) department are glad to see many of our retirees returning to campus this fall as volunteers, and we value their commitment to the university.

The retiree parking pass, which can be picked up at the PTS office located at 1117 E. Sixth St., can be used for Zone 1 or South of Sixth lots. It may also be used at some garages in conjunction with a disabled placard. Due to traffic congestion in the central section of the campus and the addition of the Sun Link Modern Streetcar, it is important to note that the Zone 1 Lots that were located South of Speedway are now Lot Specific Parking. Some retiree permits may be nearing its three year expiration date, and they may be renewed during the summer of 2014, more details to follow. For those retirees who are returning to campus as .50 or greater employees, please remember that a retiree must purchase a permit from PTS.

Sun Link, the City of Tucson Modern Street Car project, is nearing its construction end. Much of the construction is finished on campus, with Park Ave, University Blvd, and James E Rogers Way now void of any construction. The streetcar is aiming to reduce the number of vehicles on the road, as well as providing the community an alternate way to explore downtown Tucson. The much anticipated streetcar will be tested for four to six weeks on its tracks during the winter of 2013 in preparation for its grand unveiling scheduled for the summer of 2014. To receive updates on the Sun Link, visit their website www.sunlinkstreetcar.com, and sign up for their newsletter. For more information about PTS programs and services, visit our website parking.arizona.edu or call the PTS office at: 626-PARK (7275).
