The University of Arizona Retirees Association (UARA)

Purpose
- The University of Arizona Retirees Association promotes the interests and welfare of University of Arizona retirees and encourages continuing contact between retirees and the University.
- We provide the means for interaction among retirees by engaging them in diverse cultural, intellectual, and social programs.
- We inform our members of full retirement benefits available to the University of Arizona retirees.
- We Support the University of Arizona and its mission.

Mission
UARA promotes the interests and welfare of all University of Arizona retirees and provides continuing contact between retirees and the University.

Vision
UARA is a reliable and widely used source of relevant information and activities for our members

Values
Our Values are Respect, Integrity, Collaboration, and Excellence.